NGLISH AND CHINESE Kisngping, British etc., 892, Holmes, Dec. 23, DICTIONARY. WITH THE PUSTI AND MENDARIN PRONUNCIATION.

Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, Saikin-maru, Jap. etr., 1,653, Conner, April 5, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises | Satsum; British bark, 364, Suenson, Mor. 2 for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those wast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following facts are submitted for consideration :-

Chinese characters and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000. whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples CROIX LA LEGION D'HONNEUR, this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub-

In this respectthe work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested 23 in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-
